Thanks. If a " backdoor" is a donation to the school or something like that I do not want to do anything improper and I am ambivalent whether we should tell [REDACTED] or not. One thing i would like to resolve is the choice of which colleges to visit in the spring break for ██████████

1. which colleges should we visit?

2. When? ██████████ is on spring break from March 8 th the 23rd. I will be in brussell on wed12-thrusday13, so I could visit colleges on the east coast (or west coast) the weekend and monday (8-11), or when i am back sat15 all week until the 23. what do you suggest?

Once we decide where and when, we can contact the colleges for logistics and also i can get going with airplane tickets and all that♦.

let me know what you think and thank you for all your help!

The back door is through institutional advancement is all the people writing major big checks, and the side door is figuring out how I can do that for one tenth of the money to get in the same school that is there, and you're fighting that.

17 LNU: Hey, you at a game?

18 SINGER: No, no. I'm just leaving somewhere.

19 LNU: OK. [laughter] Hey, what's the best way for us to put

20 together a structured relationship for the girls and, uh,

21 you know, get some -- you know, let's say regular advice

22 or at least some periodic advice for them as they go

23 through the search process and they're trying to identify

1 LNU: Right.

2 SINGER: If you said -- and you know that -- that if you said
3 you wanted to go somewhere like Stanford or Harvard or 4 Yale and go through a different door, you can do that.
5 But to go in directly you've got to be -- just to play
6 you've got to be 35, 36 plus essentially perfect grades
7 and then you've got to have subject test scores in the 8 mid-700s.

9 LNU: Right. OK. Well, that's good, uh, good general
10 direction. And then on the, um -- the other doors, you 11 have certainly things like crew. Can they try that? Is 12 that still your -- your number one differentiator? If 13 they had a really good time, they could work on that and 14 get a time of X, that might be a second door. Or you 15 have the other door, where, you know, you can, you know,
16 make a contribution kind of thing.

17 SINGER: Yeah. So we -- we're -- that's why I'm going to 18 Harvard next Friday, because the president wants to do a 19 deal with me [07:00] because he found out that I've 20 already got 4 already in without his help. So he's like,
21 "How about -- why would you go to somebody else if you

Affidavit of Deborah Rogers

1. My name is Deborah Rogers. I am a resident of Las Vegas, Nevada.
2. I work as an assistant to John Wilson. I have been John's assistant for sixteen years, since 2004. My responsibilities include book-keeping, logistics, paperwork, and other miscellaneous duties.
3. When I began working for John, he told me that, as part of my job, I would have the ability to access many of his personal records and emails, and many of the personal records and emails of the Wilson family. My ability to access John's records and emails has been particularly important when John travels, which is often, and during the period of several years when John and his family lived in the Netherlands.
4. John told me, and I understood, that I should respect the confidentiality of his and his family's records and emails. I am expected as part of my job to use my access to John's and the Wilsons' records only for specified purposes, such as scheduling appointments and paying bills. I am expected not to look around among the family's documents, not to access them except for purposes John and his wife specified, and not to share information from the Wilsons' private records with anyone outside the family (except as requested by John or his wife).
5. Over the years, these instructions and expectations have remained unchanged. I have continually respected the Wilsons' privacy and the confidentiality of their records. When I have accessed John's emails and other records, I have done so to follow instructions from John. It has been my regular practice not to read or rummage through John's emails for personal or other purposes, nor have I had any interest in doing so.

I affirm the foregoing statements under the penalties of perjury.

This 15th day of October, 2020.

Deborah Rogers
